Even though HL7 is a volunteer organization, its protocol specifications are managed using a project management approach. The PLCPD focuses on project management methodology, which includes meeting project requirements through planning, organizing, measuring, controlling and reporting.

The PLCPD documents the life cycle process used to create and maintain Health Level 7 (HL7) Protocol Specifications from the project management perspective. It is a high level overview document which refers to applicable resource documents, tools, templates, etc. which a project team can reference at each step of the life cycle.

About

The primary public website of HL7 International is HL7.org.

To access HL7’s Ira instance use ira.hl7.org.

Health Level Seven International (HL7) is a not-for-profit, ANSI-accredited standards developing organization dedicated to providing a comprehensive framework and related standards for the exchange, integration, sharing, and retrieval of electronic health information that supports clinical practice and the management, delivery and evaluation of health services. HL7 is supported by more than 1,000 members from over 50 countries, including 500+ corporate members representing healthcare providers, government stakeholders, payers, pharmaceutical companies, vendors/suppliers, and consulting firms. HL7 Work Groups, Committees, and Collaborators use the Iraian test platform during the development and maintenance of Healthcare Interoperability Standards, Electronic Health Record functional models and profiles, and other standards products. For more information about the rollout of Confluence for usage, see the HL7 Iraian project space/page.
