Att: Charles Jaffe, cjaffe@hl7.org

Dear Charles Jaffe,

RE: VARIATION OF AFFILIATE LICENSE

We understand that you, HL7 International, are seeking to use SNOMED Clinical Terms - The Systematized Nomenclature of Medicine Clinical Terms (SNOMED CT) for the development of HL7 International products (the Approved Project). Capitalised terms used but not defined in this letter have the meanings given in the SNOMED CT Affiliate License (the Affiliate License).

Subject to your entering into an Affiliate Licence (by downloading, accessing or using any part of the International Release, you automatically agree to be bound by the terms of the Affiliate License), the IHTSDO is prepared to agree to the following variation to the Affiliate License as it applies to you:

Provided your use of the International Release is solely (1) for purposes of the Approved Project, (2) by your organisation and (3) within your organisation, in each case your organisation meaning HL7 International and not any affiliates, subsidiaries or other group organisations, then that use of the International Release will not give rise to an obligation to pay fees under Exhibit B of the Affiliate License.

Any use or deployment of the International Release (or any part of it) in any Non-Member Territory (as defined in the Affiliate Licence) and not falling within the previous paragraph will be subject to fees in accordance with Exhibit B of the Affiliate License.

Yours sincerely,
